NOTE FOR:

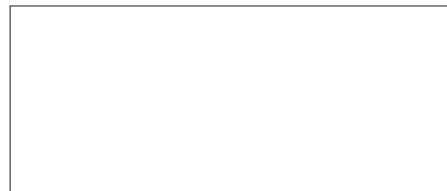

Deputy, House Affairs/OCA

SUBJECT: Response for Representative Livingston

REFERENCE: Memo from Louis Dupart to You, dtd.
8 March 1989, Subject: Topic for
Next CIA Briefing

I asked SOVA to put together a couple of pages on the Soviet private sector and organized crime for Representative Livingston, per the expression of his intent in Louis Dupart's 8 March memo to you. I thought this might be better than trying to give him something orally at the next HPSCI session on 6 April.

If you think that the material is insufficient or you want to handle it some other way, please let me know.

MEMORANDUM FOR [REDACTED]

STAT

FROM: Louis Dupart LD

SUBJECT: Topic for Next CIA Briefing

[REDACTED] during this morning's briefing, Mr. Livingston reviewed the 8 March 1989 NID. Mr. Livingston noted an article on page 11 entitled "Nascent Private Sector Under Pressure In The Soviet Union," that reports that Soviet racketeers have felt free to prey on Soviet entrepreneurs if they do not pay protection money. Mr. Livingston asked if the subject of developments in Soviet private sector, and Soviet organized crime and corrupt practices be addressed as one of the mini topics raised at one of the upcoming weekly briefings. He is not asking for anything in great detail, but just some more information on it. He also noted that recently there has been extensive U.S. press reports also on organized crime activity inside of the Soviet Union.
